Sir

Boston, Augt 9th 1779

I wrote you sometime since, the Sullivan had sent in Small Prize Brigt. at Ply to Jony with Salt, Beef, Butter and Parcell Rigging, since which the Cargo has been Divided, as follows, 11 Bush.s Salt. @ 2.00 Bread, 100 Barrels @ 2 Barrels Pork to half a Tenth, one half of which I have this Day Shipt on Board of Capt. Partridge for Ply Mouth, with safe to hand, he sails the first Wind, the Brigt and Cargo is to be sold next Thursday at Vendue after which the Prize will be Settled & I shall let you know what Ballance may be due to you. I waited on Col. Shaffner alter Boy. Marine, who declind paying the £250 advanct. for you when the Sullivan sailed; imagine must have heard the Sullivan is taken & carried into Jth Johns, Nova Scotia, which I fear is too true or She have had Prize's Somber before they, [redacted] shall be in Boston soon in the meantime I am Your humble Servt
